PREFATORY NOTE

The Library of the late Edwin B. Holden contains many rare and important items of English, French and American Literature, from the time of Shakespeare until the latter part of the Nineteenth Century; as well as fine examples of 16th and 17th century presses; Privately Printed, Press and Club Publications of the Nineteenth Century; Charming French Illustrated Books; and Notable Americana. Many of the books are beautifully bound by Famous Masters of the last century; while all the volumes have Mr. Holden's bookplate.

The discriminating taste displayed by Mr. Holden in the selection of his books, combined with the elegance of many of the bindings and the importance of the works, makes this collection one of great interest to the Collector, Student, Librarian and Bookseller.

As an illustration of the extent and importance of the field covered, the following Résumé is given,—

SIXTEENTH AND SEVENTEENTH CENTURY CLASSICS

Among the more notable books of this period are,—Six examples from the ALDUS PRESS at Venice, 1499-1545, including a fine copy of the First Edition of the Hynerotomachia Poliphili; Six books from the PLANTIN PRESS at Antwerp, 1565-1629; Seven examples of ELZEVIER IMPRINTS; Lidgate's Translation of The Tragedies of Boccaccio, 1553; Expositio di frate Hieromyno de Ferrara, 1496, printed in Florence, while Savonarola was still a power in the city; Die geuerlicheiten...herr TEWRDANNCKH, Nüremberg, 1517; and others.

EARLY ENGLISH AND ELIZABETHAN LITERATURE

Some of the more important items of this period include,—BENLOWE's Theopila, a First Edition of a rare volume of poetry; The original edition of BUTLER's Hudibras, 1663-1664; First Edition of DRYDEN's Hind and Panther, 1687; Fine copy of the Best Edition of DRAYTON's Poems, 1619; First Edition of JOHN DONNE's Poems, 1633, and a fine copy of his Death's Duell, 1632; First Edition of FLETCHER's The Purple Island, 1633; A Rare volume containing some of the works of GEORGE GASCOIGNE, including The Steele Glas, 1576; Fine copy of the First Complete Edition of HABINGTON's Castara, 1640; First Edition of HAYWARD's The First Part of the Life and Raigne of King Henry the IIII, 1599; also a First Edition of his The Life and Raigne of King Edward the Sixt, 1599; First Edition of HERRICK's Hesperides, 1648; First Edition of HEYWOOD's The Hierarchie of the Blessed Angells, 1635; Fine copy of the EARL OF LEICESTER's Commonwealth, 1641; The rare First Issue of MARSTON's Parasitaster, 1606; An Important Collection of First Editions by JOHN MILTON, including,—Poems, 1645; Paradise Lost, 1667, and THOMAS HOLLIS' copy of the Works of Milton, 1753; Mirrour of Magistrates, 1610; MONTAIGNE's Essayes, First Edition, 1603; First Edition of RANDOLPH's Poems, 1638; The SECOND and FOURTH FOLIOS of SHAKESPEARE, 1632-1685, the latter an exceptionally fine copy; First Edition of SHIRLEY's Six New Playes, 1652; First Folio Edition of SPENSER's Faerie Queen, 1609, and the First Collected Edition of the same, 1611; SUCKLING's Fragmenta Aurea, First • Edition, 1346; First Edition of SYLVESTER'S Lachrimae Lachrimarum, 1612; TAYLOR'S A Verry Merry Wherry-Ferry-Voyage, 1622; The First English treatise on Drawing and Painting—The Arte of Limming, by TOTTILLE, 1573; First Edition of WITHER'S Britain's Remembrancer, 1628; and others of note.

ENGLISH FIRST EDITIONS OF THE 18th AND 19th CENTURIES

This Collection is unusually rich in items of this period, including some of great rarity, and a number of PRESENTATION COPIES. Among some of the more important are the following,—A Collected Set of the Works of MATTHEW ARNOLD, 46 vols., and the rare original issue of his Aloric at Rome, 1840; Several Works by ELIZABETH BARRETT and ROBERT BROWNING, including the First Issue of Mrs. Browning's Sonnets, 1847, and her Two Poems, 1854; COLLINS' Odes on Several Descriptive and Allegoric Subjects, 1747; DE QUINCEY'S Opium Eater, 1822; Fine Collected Sets of the Works of AUSTIN DOBSON, 1884-1895; Several First Editions of GEORGE ELIOT, including Scenes of Clerical Life, 1858; Several Issues of FITZGERALD'S Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, including the Rare First Edition, 1859, also First Editions of his Salaman and Absal, 1856, and The Downfall and Death of King Oedipus, 1880-81; A number of First Editions by OLIVER GOLDSMITH, including a fine copy of The Vicar of Wakefield, 1766; An important Collection of First Editions by RUDYARD KIPLING, including,—Quartette, 1885, Departmental Ditties, 1886, Letters of Marque, 1891, a number of the Rare "Allahahab" imprints, and others; First Editions of LAMB'S John Woodvil, 1802, The Adventures of Ulysses, 1808, Mrs. Leicester's School, 1809, and others; A Number of First Editions by ANDREW LANG; Important items by GEORGE MEREDITH, including a Presentation copy of Poems, 1851; Author's Presentation Copy of the Works of Alexander Pope, 1717; First Edition of DANTE GABRIEL ROSSETTI'S Germ, 1850, and the Privately Printed Issue of his Sister Helen, 1857; Fine copy of SHELLEY'S The Cenci, 1819; Several First Editions by RICHARD BRINSLEY SHERIDAN, including a fine copy of The School for Scandal, 1781; Fine copy of LAURENCE'S STERNE'S A Sentimental Journey, 1768; Over 40 First Editions by ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON, including,—a Presentation copy of An Inland Voyage, 1878; A Highly Important Collection (50 items) of First Editions by ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE, comprising an almost complete set of this author's First Editions and including many of the rarer items; A number of important First Editions by ALFRED TENNYSON, and W. M. THACKERAY, the latter in the original parts.

FIRST EDITIONS OF AMERICAN AUTHORS

Among some of the more important items mention may be made of,—EMERSON'S May-Day, 1867, a Presentation Copy; FIELD'S Holy Cross, 1893, a Presentation Japan Paper Copy; Fine copy of IRVING'S History of New York, 1809; Beautifully Bound copies of LONGFELLOW'S Voices of the Night, 1839 and The Belfry of Bruges, 1846, also Lowell's copy of Nôél, 1867; LOWELL'S Class Poem, 1838, the rare Separate Issue of Mason and Slidel, 1862, and a Presentation copy of Among My Books, 1870, to Lord Coleridge; Presentation Copy of MARIA LOWELL'S Poems, 1855; Several First Editions of EDGAR ALLAN POE and JAMES McNEILL WHISTLER; Fine copy of WALT WHITMAN'S Leaves of Grass, 1855; and others.

AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPTS AND LETTERS

There are several important Manuscripts and Letters in the Holden Collection, including,—Two fine letters by ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING; A WASHINGTON IRVING MANUSCRIPT of 100 pages of his Trip in the Scottish Highlands, 1807; The Original Manuscript of LOWELL'S Class Poem, 1838, and an important series of letters by Lowell to Edgar Allan Poe, relative to The Pioneer and The Stylus; Fine Manuscript Diary of JOHN HOWARD PAYNE; Original Manuscript of ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE'S Masque of Queen Bersabe; and, Original manuscript poem The Hill of Venus, by WILLIAM MORRIS.

FRENCH ILLUSTRATED BOOKS

MINIATURE BOOKS

This collection is one of the most important ever offered at Public Sale in America. It comprises nearly fifty different items, including several of the fine French publications of the 18th and 19th centuries, among them being,—Phædri Fabulae, 1729, the first miniature book printed in Paris; Fine set of the 12 Almanacks-Calendrier de tous les Saints; DINOT'S famous miniature edition of Horace, 1828; Fine copy of the Fables of La Fontaine, 1850; and others, including The English Bijou Almanack for 1837 and 1842, and a vellum copy of Pickering's Ilias et Odysseus, 1831. Many of the above are charmingly illustrated with engraved plates.

CLUB PUBLICATIONS

The publications of some of the more important Book Clubs are represented in Mr. Holden's Library. One of the special features of this section to which we wish to call attention, is the collection of books published under the direction of the GROLIER CLUB of New York, which comprises an almost complete set of the Club's publications, a number of which are beautifully bound in handsome morocco bindings by Masters of their art. Other Club Publications include those of the CAXTON CLUB, CLUB OF ODD VOLUMES and THE ROWFANT CLUB.

PRIVATELY PRINTED AND SPECIAL PRESS BOOKS

Many of the Elegantly Printed Works of WILLIAM LORING ANDREWS are represented in this collection; as well as books from the DANIEL PRESS, VALE PRESS, RIVERSIDE PRESS, and MERRYMOUNT PRESS.

Mr. Holden's Collection of KELMSCOTT PUBLICATIONS is almost complete, and includes copies of the celebrated Chaucer, and Shakespeare's Poems. "The Publications of this Press are the most magnificent specimens of the typographic art that any country has ever produced, and stand for all that is luxurious, artistic and beautiful."

AMERICANA

Among some of the more notable items attention is called to the following,—ADAMS' Defence of the Constitutional Government of the United States, 1787, a Presentation copy from Thomas Jefferson to President Monroe; HUBLEY'S History of the American Revolution, 1805; BOUQUET'S Account of the Expedition Against the Ohio Indians, the Original Edition, 1765; The Rare FIRST REVOLUTIONARY CENSUS OF CONNECTICUT, 1774; Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union Between the States, 1777; DANKIN'S Military Collections and Remarks, New York, Gaine, 1777; Fine Copy of "Cato Major," printed by FRANKLIN in 1744, also by the same printer, A Treaty held at Lancaster with the Indians of the Six Nations, 1744; HORACE WALPOLE'S copy of Pietas at Gratulatio Collegii Cantabrigiensis, Boston, 1761; Rare Original Issue of The Charter of the City of New York, printed by ZENGER, in 1735; First Edition of HORSMANDEN'S Negro Plot, 1744; Original Edition of SMITH'S History of New York, 1757; The only known copy of O'BEIRNE'S Sermon, New York, 1776; Complete set of VALENTINE'S MANUALS; Rare Issue of the Proceedings of Massachusetts-Bay relative to Andrew Oliver, 1770; Original Issue of PETER'S History of Connecticut, 1781; Fine copy of the First Edition of JOHN COTTON'S Bloudy Tenant, 1647; RAMSAY'S History of South Carolina, 1809; Rare Issue of the Constitution of New Jersey, 1776; Rare WILLIAM BRADFORD imprint of an anonymous tract on the question of the Right of the Assembly to Settle and Dispose of the Revenue Without Direction of the Governor (Robert Hunter), New York, 1713; and others.

BOOKPLATES

There are several hundred bookplates, including American, English and French plates; also a number of bibliographical works on the subject.

BINDINGS

A special feature of Mr. Holden's library is that covering a large portion of the books bound by Famous Masters of the Nineteenth Century, with a few of earlier date. Among the names found in the various volumes are those of,—LEON GRUELL, CLOVIS EVE, ROGER PAYNE, RODGER DE COVERLY, RIVIÈRE, THE BEDFORDS, THE CLUB BINDERY, PRATT, SAMBLANX-WECKESSER, THE DOVE'S BINDERY, CHAMBOLLE-DURU, TOUT, ZAEHNSDORF, DAVID, STIKEMAN, and CUZIN. There are also a number of Painted Bindings, and an ORIGINAL BINDING FROM GROLIER'S LIBRARY.

Conditions of Sale

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

6. AKENSIDE (MARK). The Pleasures of Imagination: a Poem. FIRST EDITION. 4to, half brown levant morocco, gilt top, BY THE CLUB BINDERY, lacks the half-title and has slight repairs to first three leaves. London, 1744.
7. AKENSIDE (MARK). The Poems of Mark Akenside. Mezzotint portrait by E. Fisher, 1772. 4to, russia, break at hinges. London, 1772.
8. ALCIATI (ANDREE). Livret des Emblemes, de maistre Andre Alciat, mis en rime françoise, & presente a mon seigneur Ladmiral de France. Woodcut on nearly every leaf. 12mo, dark-brown crushed levant morocco, the sides gilt with panel and scroll enclosing a figure of the dragon of Hell inlaid in red and green, silk linings and fly-leaves, gilt edges, BY LEON GRUEL.
Paris: en la maison de Chrestien Wechel, demeurant en la rue sainte Jacques, a lescu de Basle, 1536
AN EXTREMELY RARE EDITION, the second in French (the first having been printed in 1534) and probably the fourth of all editions.
A VERY HANDSOME SPECIMEN OF GRUEL'S BINDING.
9. ALDRICH (THOMAS BAILEY). Pampinea and Other Poems. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth. New York, 1861
With a Signed Autograph Inscription of the author, to Chas. T. Briggs, on the title.
10. ALDRICH (THOMAS BAILEY). The Poems of Thomas Bailey Aldrich. 24mo, blue cloth, gilt edges, text shaken. Boston, 1865
One of the early issues of this edition, which contains nine poems now first printed.
Laid in is a four-page A.L.S. by the author, to Mr. Osgood, the publisher, dated, April 11, 1865, reading in part as follows.—
"I have just sent the little 'volum,' as Sam Weller would call it, to T. & F. (Ticknor & Fields) by express. If on examining the ms. you think there is not sufficient material to make a handsome 'blue and gold,' you may quietly exclaim: 'Why is this thus!' and proceed to build a plain 12mo, in Ticknor's brown—than which there is n't a more elegant style when the Paper, Printing, and Poetry happen to be good. If we stick to the 'blue and gold,' do you suppose that stupid people will think it is Carleton's emaciated volume grown corpulent?" etc.
11. ALDRICH (THOMAS BAILEY). Jubilee Days. An Illustrated Daily Record of the Humorous Features of the Worlds Peace Jubilee. Illustrations by A. Hoppin. Folio, boards, worn. Boston, 1873
Edited anonymously by T. B. Aldrich and W. D. Howells who contributed most of the sketches.
12. ALDRICH (THOMAS BAILEY). The Little Violinist. Square 12mo, original wrappers.
Reprinted and sold at the Fair of the Mass. Society . . . etc. 1880
FIRST SEPARATE EDITION. On the cover is written,—Mr. Holden with compliments of T. H. Aldrich, 1896, in the autograph of the author.

16. ALDUS' VENICE PRESS. Colonna (Francesco). Hypnerotomachia Poliphili, ubi humana omnia non nisi somnium esse docet . . . etc. Numerous beautiful illustrations, and with the plate illustrating the worship of Priapus unmarrred. Folio, straight-grained brown morocco, gilt, gilt edges, inside leather joints, BY C. LEWIS.
Venice: in aedibus Aldi Manuti, MID (1499)
FIRST EDITION. Very Fine and Tall copy measuring 12½ x 8 inches. The masterpiece of Aldus' press, and famous for the beauty of the wood-cut illustrations which have been attributed to Mantegna, Raphael, Bellini and nearly all the great artists of the period, though there is a well-founded belief that they may have been executed by the anonymous "Master of the Dolphin" who illustrated other books of Aldus Manutius.

First Session, Wednesday Afternoon, April 28th

17. ALDUS' VENICE PRESS. DANTE. Le Terze Rime di Dante: L'Onferno, El Purgatorio, el Paradiso. Woodcut illustrations in the preliminary commentary. Thick 12mo, brown crushed levant morocco gilt, gilt edges, BY F. BEDFORD. Venice: In aedibus Aldi, 1502
FINE COPY OF THE FIRST ALDINE EDITION, AND EXCEEDINGLY SCARCE.
18. ALDUS' VENICE PRESS. PRIAPUS. Diversorum Veterum Poetarum in Priapum lusus. 12mo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt Aldine anchor on sides, gilt edges, BY MASSON-DEBONNELLE. Venice: Aldi et Andreæ socri, 1517
A VERY SCARCE ALDINE IMPRINT AND THE FIRST EDITION.
19. ALDUS' VENICE PRESS. BUDE (GUILIELMI). Libri V de Asse et partib. eius post duas Parisienses impressiones ab eodem ipso Budaeo castigati, idq. authore Io. Grolierio Lugdunensi. 8vo, old French blue morocco gilt, gilt edges. Printed at the expense of Grolier to whom there is a dedication by the printers. Grolier gave minute directions how it was to be printed. It may be assumed that this book was the size, and style in which the famous collector considered books ought to be produced. Venice: Aldi et Andreæ Asulani, 1522
20. ALDUS' VENICE PRESS. PETRARCH (FRANCESCO). Il Petrarca. Aldine anchor on title. 12mo, brown crushed levant morocco, the sides and back decorated with mosaic in interlacing strap work of black levant outlined in gold, inside dentelle borders, gilt edges, BY CAPÉ. PROCEEDINGS of his Majesty's Council of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, relative to the Deposition of Andrew Oliver, Esq; Secretary of the said Province, concerning what passed at Council in Consequence of the unhappy Affair of the 5th of March 1770.

In COUNCIL, October 4, 1720. The General Court sitting,

ONE of the Members of the Board having acquainted the Board that he had seen a Deposition signed Andrew Oliver, which was published in the Appendix to a Pamphlet lately printed in London: in which Deposition divers Gentlemen of the Council, which consisted of 8 Members then present, therein said to be convened on the 5th Day of March last, are represented as having made such a Declaration to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, respecting a plan formed by the People to remove the King's Troops and the Commissioners of the Customs from the Town of Boston, as was likely to be attended with the most pernicious Consequences to this Province—He thereupon moved that the Board would make Enquiry of the Gentlemen of which said Council consisted, what Foundation there was for such a representation— Which motion being seconded, the Board desired said Gentlemen, namely, Mr. Danforth, Mr. Erving, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Gray, Mr. Russell, Mr. Tyler, Mr. Pitts, and Mr. Dexter, to prepare a true State of the Matter and lay the same before the Board as soon as may be.

JOHN COTTON, D. Sec'y.

THE Committee appointed by the Honorable Board on the 4th of October instant, to enquire what Foundation there was for the Representation made in the Deposition signed Andrew Oliver, published in the Appendix to a Pamphlet printed in London, and to prepare a true State of that Matter and lay the same before the Board, having (as far as they are able) recollect the Proceedings had in Council the 6th and 7th of March last, and the Declarations of Royal Tyler, Esq; and other members of Council (so far as those Proceedings and Declarations are referred to in Mr. Oliver's Deposition)—what your Committee can severally recollect being comprised in their respective Depositions* accompanying this their Report, they take leave to lay the same before the Honorable Board for their Consideration.

SAM. DANFORTH, per Order.

111. [ARNOLD (MATTHEW).] Alaric at Rome: a Prize Poem recited in Rugby School. 8vo, original pink wrappers. Preserved in levant morocco solander case. Rugby, 1840
EXCESSIVELY RARE. The Original Edition of Matthew Arnold's first book, in fine original state and particularly rare with the original wrappers. Printed by a Rugby local printer from the author's manuscript, immediately after the recitation of the poem, it was no doubt issued in a very few copies for presentation to Arnold's friends only and has thus disappeared, probably not six copies being known to-day. This has the faint autograph on the wrapper of a Rugby student.

161. BEHN (MRS. APHRA). Poems upon Several Occasions: with a Voyage to the Island of Love. FIRST EDITION. Small 8vo, old calf. London, 1684
Charles Kirkpatrick Sharpe's copy, an antiquarian and friend of Sir Walter Scott.
162. [BENLOWES (EDWARD).] Theophila, or Loves Sacrifice, a Divine Poem. 10 separate plates by Hollar, Lombart and others, but without the portrait by Barlow. Folio, old calf, a little worn, 2 of the plates are inlaid, and 2 are cut down. London, 1652
FIRST EDITION AND AN EXTREMELY RARE VOLUME OF POETRY. A peculiarity of the book is that no two copies are found to agree in the collation. This copy does not contain the duplicate leaf, 02, which is usually found only in presentation copies, but most copies have only five or six plates while this has ten. No copy was probably issued with the full number of separate plates.
The Bierstadt copy, with bookplate by E. D. Trench.

ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING. SONNETS
Reduced facsimile of title-page
[No. 290]

Second Session, Wednesday Evening, April 28th

294. BROWNING (ELIZABETH BARRETT). A.L.S. (Signed Elizabeth Barrett), 4pp. 16mo, Inquay, March 11, 18?. To "My dear cousin & friend."

A fine letter of personal interest written to her cousin at Florence, thanking him for remembering her while there and giving him news of her family and friends. Praises a song of his which appeared in "The Athenaeum," mentions the success of the "Tableaux Annual," commenting particularly on the fine engravings presented, and also on Miss Mitford's contribution of stories more than usually full of interest & character.

Speaks of her father who is obliged to spend so much time in London: of the hope held out for the regaining of her health and strength by her physicians, although she has been and still is confined to her bed; of her brothers residing in Jamaica, from whom comes nothing but good news, both of them being perfectly well satisfied with a sugar cane life. etc.

295. BROWNING (ELIZABETH BARRETT—wife of Robert Browning). A.L.S., 4pp. 12mo, Rome, 126 Via Felice, April. To Mr. Tilton. Sends lyric of "Only Girl," and refers to the Italian cause and Prince Napoléon.

Reads in part,—

" . . . Our Italian cause sweeps on its way triumphantly—, and the hitch at Rome will not stop it long—People in England and elsewhere are beginning to understand at last something of the nature & extent of Napoleon's difficulties; though you have a 'correspondent' (not E G G) also sees wonderful things, or rather wonderfully doesn't see things, & is not likely to be converted from his peculiar opinions by what is of such merely general acceptation as a fact.

"Prince Napoleon's speech in the senate gave the emperor's interior view (as I understand it) free from the prepare of responsibility, & stripped of official forms of presentation. . . . Let us not forget to praise the great Czar for the freeing of the serfs.—Never can America admit a compromise on slavery in face of that action. . . ."

296. BROWNING (ROBERT). Paracelsus. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original boards, uncut. London, 1835

297. BROWNING (ROBERT). Strafford: An Historical Tragedy. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, three-quarter crushed levant morocco, gilt top, uncut, BY TOUT. London, 1837

No place, Anno 1648

The poems written in the Bishop's early years and never published by him, but collected soon after his death and printed privately in this volume. The printing was evidently not done in England.

On page 58 occurs the famous reference to Shakespeare's Richard IIIrd., ending,—

"For when he would have sayd, King Richard dyed
And call'd, a horse, a horse; he, Burbidge cry'd."

Valuable as showing that Richard Burbage was the original performer of Richard in Shakespeare's play.

503. DE QUINCEY (THOMAS). Confessions of an English Opium-Eater. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original boards, entirely uncut. Very slightly cracked at hinges. London, 1822
VERY SCARCE and an exceptionally fine copy, with the half-title.
When De Quincey wrote the "Confessions" in 1822 the opium habit was of more than ten years' standing. He made several efforts to conquer it, and at one time reduced the 340 grains which he took daily to 40 grains. An attachment formed at Grasmere to a Miss Margaret Simpson was the motive for his reform.
504. DE ROOS (F. FITZGERALD). Personal Narrative of Travels in the United States and Canada in 1826. With Remarks on the Present State of the American Navy. By Lieut. the Hon. Fitzgerald de Roos, Royal Navy. Illustrated. 8vo, old blue calf, gilt, gilt edges, rubbed. London: Wm. Harrison Ainsworth, 1887

Second Session, Wednesday Evening, April 28th

505. DE VIGNY (ALFRED). Cinq-Mars: or, a Conspiracy under Louis XIII.
Translated by William Hazlitt. Etchings by Gaujean. 2 vols. royal 8vo, cloth, gilt, uncut. No. 71 of the limited edition of 200 copies. Boston, 1889

506. DIBBIN (THOMAS FROGNALL). A Bibliographical, Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. Portraits, facsimiles, printers' marks, etc. 3 vols. imperial 8vo, calf, gilt fillet lines, gilt edges. London, 1821

FIRST EDITION, thick paper copy. Famous for the curious and interesting information on public and private libraries in France and Germany. The text illustrations are on India paper and it contains the private plate of Diana de Poictiers known as the "bare necked portrait" after Primaticcio in both proof and lettered state. The plate was destroyed when fifty copies had been taken and very few copies contain it.

Laid in Volume I, is a 4-page autograph letter from Dibdin to Renouard of Paris in which he alludes to most of the bibliographers of the day and the works they are publishing, including Earl Spencer and his own "Bibliotheca Spencerian," which he says he hopes to finish in April (1814).

507. DICKENS (CHARLES). The Pickwick Papers. Complete in the original (20 in 19) parts. Preserved in morocco solander case. London, 1837

The original issues of "The Pickwick Papers" in parts, and in first state, are almost unobtainable. Probably very few of the original buyers in its periodical form succeeded in obtaining first issues throughout. This set, like nearly all, is mixed, a few are first issues of the wrappers and plates, other parts are second issues. All covers are dated 1836 except parts 8, 10 and 18. Part 3 is without the added line "By R. W. Buss" on the cover. Parts 2, 10, 15, 17, and 18 have the address leaves. The two first plates by Phiz are the first issue with the "Nemo" signature, and part 3 has the Buss plates. Some of the advertisement leaves are lacking.

508. DICKENS (CHARLES). Our Mutual Friend. Illustrated by Marcus Stone. Complete in the original (20) parts, with the advertisements and preserved in two morocco solander cases. London, 1865
Exceptionally good clean copy, the wrappers fresh and intact.

509. DICKENS (CHARLES). A series of illustrations to "Pickwick," comprising many rare plates, including, illustrations by Onwhyn, Pailthorpe, reproductions of the original drawings by Phiz, water-colors by Kyd, illustrations to "The Penny Pickwick" Crowquill, Buss, Heath, F. Barnard, Sibson, Wheeler, etc. A few are reprints, but mainly they are originals, some on India paper. Over 200 pieces, 8vo, or inlaid to 8vo, to extra-illustrate a copy of "The Pickwick Papers."

510. [DICKINSON (JOHN).] An Essay on the Constitutional Power of Great Britain over the Colonies in America; with the Resolves of the Committee for the Province of Pennsylvania, and their Instructions to their Representatives in Assembly. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, half morocco.

Philadelphia: Printed and sold by William and Thomas Bradford, 1774

515. DODINGTON (JOHN). The History of the Government of France, under the Administration of the Great Armand du Plessis, Cardinall and Duke of Richlieu, and Chief Minister of State in that Kingdome. Translated out of the French by J. D. Esq. Engraved portrait of Richelieu by Faithorne. Small folio, sprinkled calf, top of portrait and title a little hurt by damp. London, 1657

516. DONKIN (MAJOR). Military Collections and Remarks. Published by Major Donkin. Tall 8vo, half red morocco, entirely uncut, original paper wrappers bound in, lacks the portrait.

New York: Hugh Gaine, 1777

VERY RARE, and exceedingly so in uncut state. The book is notorious for a note originally printed at the foot of page 190, to the article on "Bows" where the author suggests that if arrows were dipped in the matter of small pox and fired at the American rebels it would "sooner disband these stubborn, ignorant, enthusiastic savages than any other compulsive measures such is their fear and dread of that disorder." This note is cut out as in all copies. With the autograph on the cover of Major General Jones, whose name is in the List of Subscribers and who commanded the 62 regt. in New York at the time.

Third Session, Thursday Afternoon, April 29th

517. DONKIN (MAJOR). Military Collections and Remarks. Published by Major Donkin. Emblematic portrait of Earl Percy engraved by Smithers. 8vo, old calf. New York, Hugh Gaine, 1777

Fine copy of the FIRST EDITION of Fitzgerald's first published book.
600. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Polonius: a Collection of Wise Saws and Modern Instances. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. London, 1852
FIRST EDITION of Fitzgerald's second book. An interesting copy being from the library of Charles Keene, the famous artist and illustrator of "Punch," with his bookplate, and with "by Edward Fitzgerald" written on the title.
601. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Six Dramas of Calderon. Freely translated by Edward Fitzgerald. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. London, 1853
FIRST EDITION. Fitzgerald angered by literary criticisms withdrew and suppressed the whole issue, and the book is in consequence very scarce.
602. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Salaman and Absal. An Allegory. Translated from the Persian. Frontispiece. Thin square 8vo, original blue cloth, uncut. London, J. W. Parker & Son, 1856
FIRST EDITION, VERY RARE. Few copies were published and few were sold. Fitzgerald once jocularly referred to a "public of two" for this book, and although he doubtless sold more than two copies yet the book has practically disappeared.

Third Session, Thursday Afternoon April 29th

603. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, The Astronomer-Poet of Persia. Translated into English Verse. Small thin 4to, original wrappers, very carefully rebacked. Contained in a solander case lettered for the first three editions. London, Quaritch, 1859

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION IN THE ORIGINAL WRAPPERS. One of the rarest and most sought for books in English Literature of the Nineteenth Century.

The history, almost a romance, of this little pamphlet is well known: how it was at first a complete failure, scarcely one of the few copies issued being sold, of its consignment to the "two-penny box" through which Rossetti and Swinburne were rummaging when they came across it, and then of its meteoric rise to appreciation of literary values.

604. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, the Astronomer-Poet of Persia. Translated into English Verse. 4to, wrappers, uncut. London, Quaritch, 1859 (1887)

One of 25 copies privately printed by Thomas J. Wise, in facsimile of the First Edition.

605. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, the Astronomer-Poet of Persia. Rendered into English Verse. Second Edition. Small thin 4to, original wrappers. London, Quaritch, 1868

The second edition, like the first, has practically disappeared; it has many alterations and editions, 110 quatrains instead of the original seventy-five, including the Quatrain XXIV, which Swinburne pronounced more exquisite than any that had appeared in the first edition:

"I sometimes think that never blows so red
The Rose as where some buried Caesar bled;
That every Hyacinth the Garden wears
Dropt in her Lap from some once lovely Head."

Fitzgerald had this edition printed for himself at Bungay by John Childs, a local printer (while the first had been printed in London by G. Norman), the alteration no doubt enabling him to correct proofs more easily.

606. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, The Astronomer-Poet of Persia. Rendered into English Verse. Third edition. Small thin 4to, original half roan, uncut and unopened.

London, 1872

607. [FITZGERALD (EDWARD).] The Downfall and Death of King Oedipus: a Drama in Two Parts. Chiefly taken from the Oedipus Tyrannus and Coloneaeus of Sophocles. 8vo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt back, gilt edges, BY THE CLUB BINDERY, with the original blue wrappers bound in. [Guildford, Surrey, 1880-1881]

FIRST EDITION. ONE OF THE RAREST OF EDWARD FITZGERALD'S BOOKS, only fifty copies having been privately printed.

Third Session, Thursday Afternoon, April 29th

608. FITZGERALD (EDWARD). Works of Fitzgerald. New York, 1887. 2 vols.; Letters and Literary Remains, edited by W. Aldis Wright. 3 vols. 1889; Prideaux's Bibliography of Fitzgerald. London, 1901; and five editions of Fitzgerald's Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, including,—Dole's privately printed "Bi-lingual" edition; the First American Edition. Boston, 1880; the Text to accompany the Vedder Illustrated edition; Riverside Press edition, 1888; and the London, Macmillan edition of 1890, on fine paper, bound in vellum. Together, 11 vols. 8vo and 12mo, cloth and vellum.

Various places, various dates

609. FLATMAN (THOMAS). Poems and Songs. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original calf. Fine copy with the leaf preceding title marked "A."

London, 1674

Flatman's poem "A Thought of Death" suggested to Pope his "Vital Spark of Heavenly Flame." A portrait is sometimes found with copies of this edition, but in this is absent, and it is a question whether a portrait was issued with it. This copy has the leaf "A" before title-page.

610. FLATMAN (THOMAS). A Pindarique Ode on the Death of the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Ossory. FIRST EDITION. pp. 5, small folio, half blue calf, note on Flatman written by an early owner on the reverse of the title.

Small 4to, full dark green crushed levant morocco, with a graceful border of floral tooling in gold, enclosing small rose medallions in each corner, wide inside gilt borders of birds and grapes, top edges gilt, other edges gilt on the rough, BY LORTIC.

Philadelphia: Printed and sold by B. Franklin, 1744

Very fine and tall copy, some leaves entirely uncut. THE FIRST PUBLISHED TRANSLATION OF ANY CLASSIC IN AMERICA, AND THE MOST CELEBRATED PRODUCTION OF BENJAMIN' FRANKLIN'S PRESS.

The translation was made in 1734 by Chief Justice James Logan, who was the second of the three famous worthies of Pennsylvania: Penn, Logan, Franklin. Copies were circulated in manuscript among friends, and Franklin got one, which he determined to give to the press. In his preface he calls the book 'this first translation of a Classic in this Western World', and he wishes it may prove "a happy omen that Philadelphia shall become the seat of the American Muses."

[See Reproduction of Title-page]

in one volume, 12mo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt fillet lines, inside dentelle borders and gilt edges, BY POUILLET. Paris, 1775

The FIRST EDITION, before the plates were numbered. Cohen describes these Marillier illustrations as "of ravishing grace." They were engraved by N. de Launay and other noted French Eighteenth Century Engravers.

636. FRENCH EIGHTEENTH CENTURY ILLUSTRATED BOOKS. Berquin. *Idylles.
Second Recueil.* 12mo, sewed, uncut. [Paris, 1775]

The Sheets of the Second Part entirely uncut and unbound, with very brilliant uncut impressions of these charming Marillier plates, commencing with "Les Délices de l'Hymen." The setting up is different from the preceding item [No. 635] and apparently earlier, as the plates are marvellously fresh.

637. FRENCH EIGHTEENTH CENTURY ILLUSTRATED BOOKS. Histoire d'Angleterre, représenté par Figures, gravée par F. A. David. Accomp-agnées de Discours. 111 plates printed in carmine. 3 vols. in one.

652. GASCOIGNE (GEORGE). A volume containing,—“The Steele Glas, a Satyre.” FIRST EDITION. London, 1576 (complete but does not contain the “Complainte of Phyliomene” mentioned on the title, a small piece is torn from the corner of the leaf of dedication); Flowers. London, 1575 (lacking the beginning but containing from Sig. C2 to the end); “Hearbes” including the Comedy of “Supposes,” etc. London, 1575 (complete); “Weedes.” London, 1575 (paged continuously with the preceding but lacking from Sig Ni to S2); “Certayne Notes of Instruction concerning the making of Berse,” complete, (1575). In one volume, small 4to, old calf.

London, 1575-1576

VERY RARE. The publisher seemed to have gathered together such unsold copies of Gascoigne’s writings as he had left and bound them together in a haphazard manner, like this, so that very few copies agree, and most are more or less incomplete. Gascoigne ranks very high in English Literature, the "Steel Glass" being the earliest English Poetical Satire, "Supposes" one of the earliest English comedies, "Jocasta" (contained with "Supposes" in the "Hearbes") the second English tragedy, and his Instructions for making verse the first treatise on this subject in the English language. The portrait of Gascoigne on the back of the title "as a soldier" is the only known portrait. The commendatory verses contain the earliest known poem by Sir Walter Raleigh.

653. GAULTIER (BON). The Book of Ballads. Illustrated by Crowquill, Leech and Doyle. FIRST EDITION. Illuminated title in red and gold. Small 4to, original cloth, gilt edges, tear in the half title to the first ballad. London, no date

An unusual collection of FIRST EDITIONS of Thomas Hardy in the ORIGINAL CLOTH, AS ISSUED. Few modern authors are so difficult to secure in the original editions as Hardy. His early books had a very small sale and such copies as were sold were mainly bought by the Circulating Libraries, consequently most of the volumes in this set are library copies, with the labels removed. Hardy's first book, "Desperate Remedies," was issued anonymously and is practically un procurable in the first edition.

Seldom is such a long series of Hardy's First Editions offered for sale.

766. HARINGTON (JOHN). Orlando Furioso in English Heroical Verse. Now thirdly revised and amended, with the Addition of the Author's Epigrams. Engraved title and copper plates. Small folio, blue morocco with a gilt floral and scroll panel and corner ornaments of flowers, gilt edges, contemporary name of B. Davison on the title.
London, 1634
767. HART (CHARLES HENRY). Browere's Life Masks of Great Americans. 21 plates of Jefferson, Adams, Madison and Mrs. Madison, La Fayette, Clay, Gilbert Stuart, Edwin Forrest, Monroe, etc. 4to, half morocco, gilt top, uncut. New York, De Vinne Press, 1899
No. 10 of only 50 copies on hand-made paper, with the illustrations on China paper.
768. HARVARD COLLEGE. Pietas et Gratulatio Collegii Cantabrigiensis apud Novanglos. 4to, calf, gilt, binding rubbed, polished calf tooled with a border of scrolls incorporating the crowns of King and Queen.
Bostoni-Massachusettensium, Typis J. Green & J. Russell, 1761
HORACE WALPOLE'S copy, with his bookplate, and inscribed by him on a fly-leaf "Bought at the sale of John Earl Granville, 1763. H. W." The excessively rare thick paper copy of this series of Poems written at Harvard, in Latin, Greek and English, on the death of George II and the ascension to the throne of George III. Laid in is Justin Winsor's monograph on the various authors, whom he concludes to be Benjamin Church, Stephen Sewall, John Winthrop and others. He also states that these copies on thick paper were sent to England for the members of the Royal Family and likely entrusted to the care of Thomas Hollis to be suitably bound, (Hollis gave the Greek type used, and this was the only time it was used, being later destroyed in the fire).
769. HARVARD REGISTER. Numbers 1 to 12. [All published.] [Conducted by members of the University, including O. W. Holmes, and others.] The first leaf lacking in No. 1, and four numbers without wrappers.
Cambridge, 1827-1828
Holmes of the class of '29, was presumably associated with the Polyglot Club, composed of the editors of this publication, and as none of his poems are signed, it is indeterminable which are the product of his pen. In the "Amateur" of 1830, poems are signed "H" and "O. W. H.", all of which are attributed to him. In the "Harvard Register" the poem,— "Napoleon's Departure to St. Helena," p. 27, is signed "H" and has a footnote by the editor,— "We hope to be frequently favored with communications from the same pen," which would indicate that perhaps this is among the earliest, if not the very first of Holmes' literary efforts to appear in print.

FIRST EDITION.
809. HOWELL (JAMES). Dodona's Grove, or the Vocall Forrest. The Third edition, more exact and perfect than the Former; with the Addition of two other Tracts, viz. England's Tears for the Present Wars, The Pre-Eminence of Parlements. (Each with separate title.) Engraved frontispiece and folding plates. 12mo, half calf. Cambridge, 1645
810. HOWELL (JAMES). Epistolae Ho-Elianae. Familiar Letters Domestic and Forren; Divided into Six Sections, Partly Historicall, Politicall, Philosophicall, upon Emergent Occasions. By J. H. Esq. Engraved frontispiece containing portrait, the lower margin skilfully restored. Small 4to, crimson straight-grain morocco, gilt fillet lines, gilt inside borders and edges. London, 1645
FIRST EDITION, VERY RARE WITH THE ENGRAVED TITLE. Most of these famous comments were written while Howell was a prisoner in Fleet Street during the Commonwealth, and were addressed to Ben Jonson, the Earl of Leicester, Lord Herbert of Cherbury and others. They contain many noted stories as the "Pied Piper of Hamelin" which may have given Browning his idea for the poem. He also comments on Sir Walter Raleigh's "golden myne" which is "proved a meer Chymera," and he fears it will go ill with him as Gondamar, the Spanish Ambassador "will never give him over till he hath his head off his shoulders."

Fourth Session, Thursday Evening, April 29th

New York, 1860; Rip van Winkle and the Legend of Sleepy Hollow. Illustrated by G. H. Boughton. Large Paper and limited to 250 copies. Royal 8vo, cloth. London, 1893. Together, 2 vols.

832. IRVING (WASHINGTON). Manuscript: containing 100 pages of Irving's manuscript notes (some leaves have writing on both sides). Pocket note book of 12mo size, covered with a piece of an old vellum manuscript, with flap and cord, lettered on the vellum cover in Irving's hand "1807 Highlands," and a note inside in another hand "Journal of a Trip in the Scottish Highlands by Washington Irving of Sunny-side."

On the first page is pencilled a quotation from Smollett
"On Leven's bank while free to rove
And tune the rural pipe to love" followed by his account of leaving Dunbarton for Loch Lomond passing Smollett's monument on the Leven, and while describing the overwhelming effect of the mountain scenery after a storm, stops to jot on the opposite page "Females with stockings without feet to them." He copies a number of the verses he finds scratched on the walls of the Castle. Irving also visited the falls of the Clyde and describes them and many other lovely spots, and Country seats, including Ayrshire where he pays a tribute to Burns.

HERE BEGINNETH THE TALES OF CANTERBURY AND FIRST THE PROLOGUE THEREOF

THAT Aproule with his shoures boote
The droghtes of March hath perced to the roote,
And bathed every veyne in swich licour,
Of which vertu engendred is the flour;
Whan Zephirus eek with his swete breath
Inspired hath in every holt and heeth

The tendre croppes, and the yonge sonne
Dath in the Ram his halfe cours yronne,
Hath male fowles malen melodye,
That slepen al the nyght with open eye,
So priketh hem nature in hi corages;
Channe longen fol to goon on pigrimages,
And palmeres for to deken straunge strondes,
To ferme halwes, kowthe in sondry londes;
And specially, from every shire ende
Of Engeland, to Caunterbury they wende,
The hooly blisful martir for to beke,
That hem hath holpen whan that they were outayled.

IF

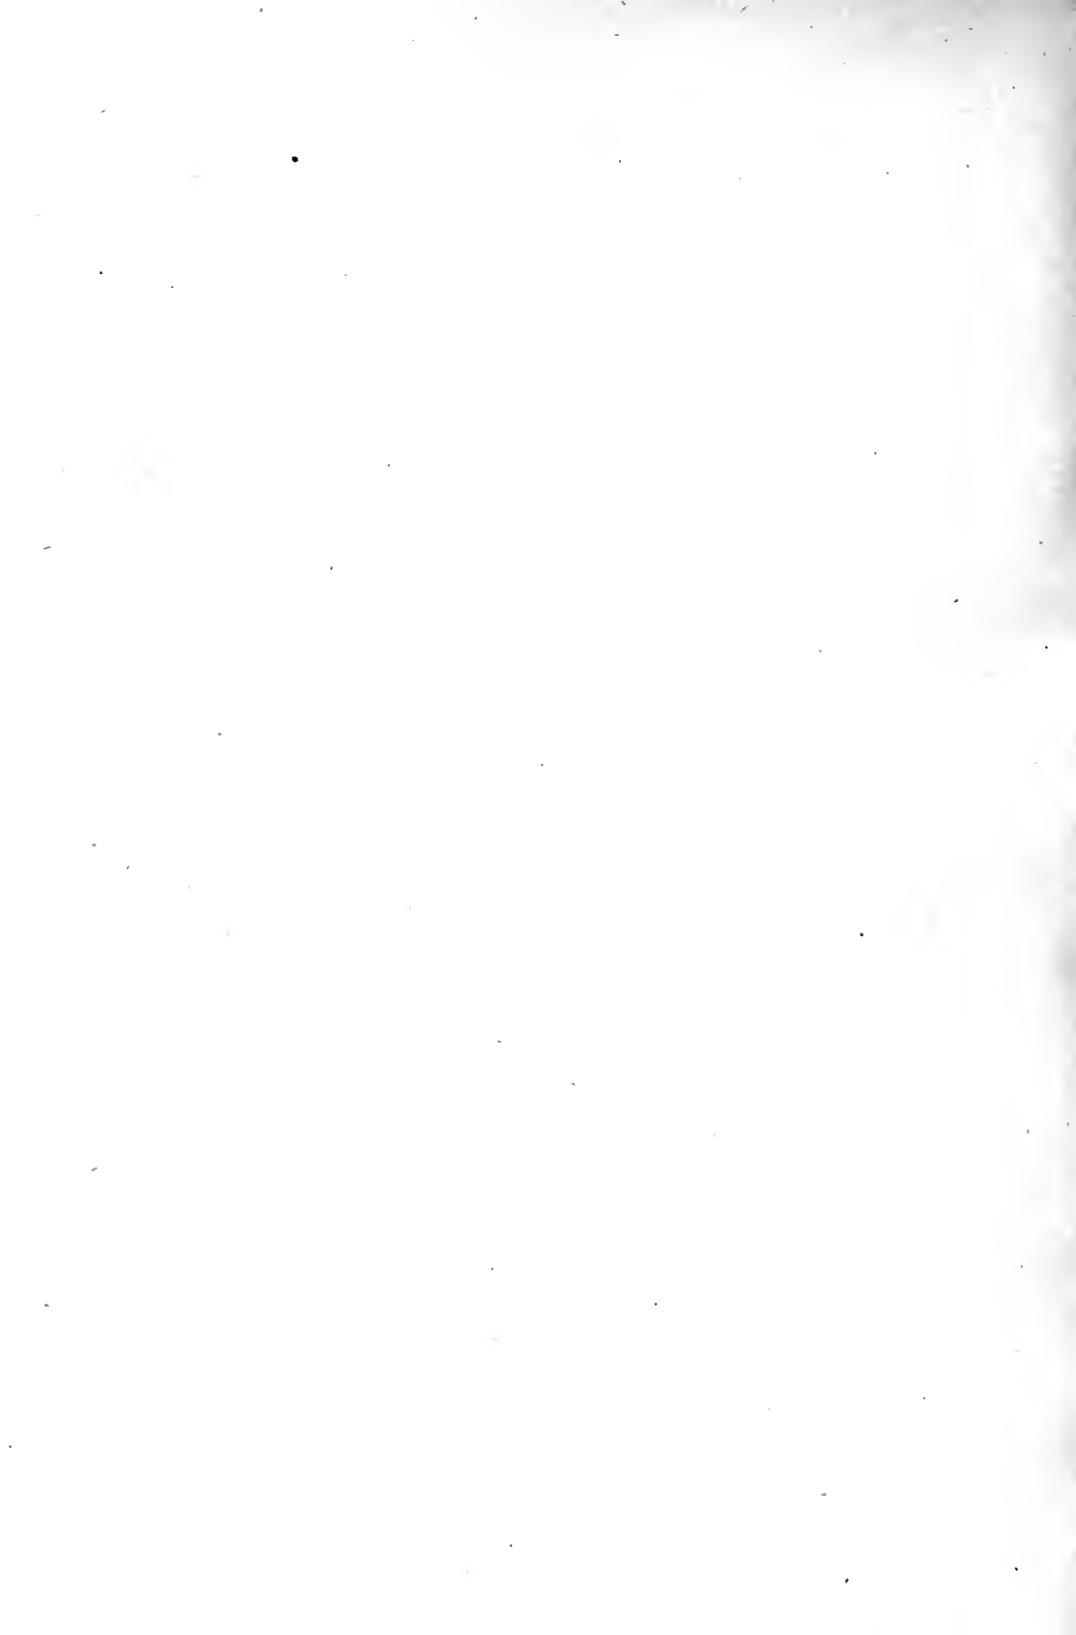

ILL that in that season on a day,
In Southwerk at the Tabard as I lay,
Redy to wenden on my pigrimyng
age
To Caunterbury with ful devout corage,
At nyght were come into that hostelrye
At hymne and twenty in a compaignye,
Of sondry dedys by adventure walle
In felaweshipe; alle pigrimes were they alle,
That toward Caunterbury wolden ryde.

KELMSCOTT PRESS

Chaucer's Works

Reduced facsimile of first page

[No. 858]

Fourth Session, Thursday Evening, April 29th

858. KELMSCOTT PRESS. Chaucer (Geoffrey). The Works of Geoffrey Chaucer. Edited by F. S. Ellis. The borders, woodcut title and 87 woodcut illustrations by Sir E. Burne-Jones. Folio, half holland, uncut. [Hammersmith, 1893]

Only 425 copies were printed, and now extremely rare.

The most important achievement of the Kelmscott Press, printed in the "Chaucer type" designed by William Morris, the work on it extending over a period of nearly two years. Morris designed the woodcut borders around the Burne Jones illustrations and the large initial words. Signature "hi" having a slight defect in the paper, two extra leaves are laid in to replace it.

[See Reproduction of Printed Page]

859. KELMSCOTT PRESS. More (Sir Thomas). Utopia. Ralph Robinson's Translation with foreword by William Morris. Woodcut borders. 8vo, vellum with ties. [Hammersmith, 1893]

924. LAMB (CHARLES). John Woodvil. A Tragedy. To which are added Fragments of Burton, the Author of the Anatomy of Melancholy. 12mo, dark brown crushed levant morocco, gilt back and inside borders, gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE.

London: Printed by T. Plummer, 1802

FIRST EDITION. This was Lamb's first attempt at play writing, which he sent to Charles Kemble in the hope of the actor's presenting it to the public, but Kemble promptly lost the manuscript, and in consequence Lamb had to write another version. In the first letter that Lamb wrote to Southey, alluding to it, he said,—“My tragedy will be a medley of laughter and tears—songs, wit, pathos, humor—Heaven send they dance not the dance of death.” It is particularly interesting as the first evidence of Lamb's study of the dramatic poetry of the Elizabethan age, in whose revival he bore so large a part. William Godwin accidentally seeing the delicious rhymed passage in the “Forest scene,” took it for a choice fragment from the old dramatists and went to Lamb to assist him in finding the author.

A Presentation Copy, having inscribed in Lamb's hand,—“From the Author to T. Monkhouse, March 1818,” on fly-leaf.

925. LAMB (CHARLES). The Adventures of Ulysses. Engraved frontispiece and Title by Heath after Corbould. 12mo, robin's egg blue crushed levant morocco, gilt fillet lines, inside dentelle borders, gilt top, the other edges uncut. London, 1808

FIRST EDITION, VERY RARE IN UNCUT STATE, measuring 7x4½ in. An exceptionally fine copy.

Godwin, who published this work, took exception to certain passages in the manuscript saying: “We live in a squeamish age,” thus giving offense to Lamb, who replied; “If you want a book which is not occasionally to shock, you should have thought of a tale which was not so full of anthropophagi and wonders... I only say that I will not consent to alter such passages, which I know to be some of the best in the book. As an author I say to you, an author, touch not my work. As a bookseller, I say; Take the work such as it is, or refuse it. You are as free to refuse it as when we first talked of it. As a friend I say: Don't plague yourself and me with nonsensical objections. I assure you I will not alter one more word.”

Fourth Session, Thursday Evening, April 29th

926. LAMB (CHARLES). The Adventures of Ulysses. 12mo, green crushed levant morocco, inside gilt borders, gilt edges. London, 1808
FIRST EDITION, with the frontispiece and engraved title and the "New Books for Children" at the end.
927. LAMB (CHARLES). Mrs. Leicester's School: or, the History of Several Young Ladies. related by Themselves. Frontispiece by Hopwood. 12mo, crimson crushed levant morocco, inside gilt borders and gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE. London: Printed for M. J. Godwin, 1809
FIRST EDITION AND FIRST ISSUE. VERY RARE.
Only three pieces were by Charles Lamb; the others were by Mary. For this we have Lamb's own statement, made in a letter to Bernard Barton, written in 1824:
"My sister's part in the 'Leicester's School' (about two thirds) was purely her own; as it was (to the same quantity) in the 'Shakespeare Tales' which bear my name. I wrote only the 'Witch Aunt,' the 'First Going to School,' and the final story about 'A Little Indian Girl' in a ship."
This book, was, no doubt, made at Godwin's suggestion. It seems to have been published late in 1808, though dated 1809. The copyrights for this volume and "Tales from Shakespeare" were sold to Baldwin and Craddock on July 21, 1836, by Mary Lamb for £15.0.0. According to the indentation the original holder of the copyright was William Godwin.
928. LAMB (CHARLES). Elia. Essays which have appeared under that signature in the London Magazine; The Last Essays of Elia. Together, 2 vols. 8vo, polished calf, gilt, gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE.
London, 1823-1833
FIRST EDITION OF BOTH VOLUMES; the first with the two addresses of the publisher, being a second issue. FINE, TALL AND CLEAN COPIES. Both volumes have the advertisements at end.
929. LAMB (CHARLES). Les Jeunes Pensionnaires, ou Histories de Plusieurs Jeunes Demoiselles, racontées par Elles-Mêmes; Traduction de l'Anglais. Seconde Edition. Copper plates. 12mo, old half calf and boards. Paris, 1824
First French translation of Charles Lamb's "Mrs. Leicester's School." VERY RARE.
930. LAMB (CHARLES). Elia. Essays which have appeared under that signature in the London Magazine. Second Series. 12mo, original boards, cloth back, a little shabby, entirely uncut, somewhat shaken. Philadelphia, 1828

954. LEICESTER (EARL OF). Leycester's Common-wealth: Conceived, Spoken, and Published with most earnest protestation of all dutifull good will and affection towards this Realme: For whose good onely it is made common to many. Very fine impression of the engraved portrait by Marshall. 12mo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt fillet-lines, inside borders and gilt edges, BY WOOD.
[London:] Printed 1641
Bound with it is,—“Leicesters Ghost,” title and 34pp., separate pagination. For long the authorship was attributed to Robert Parsons, the Jesuit, but that theory has been given up by modern critics. The volume is rare, and valuable for the political and secret history of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. In it occurs for the first time the story of the tragedy of Amy Robsart, and the Earl of Leicester is openly accused of murdering her.
955. LELAND (CHARLES GODFREY). Etruscan Roman Remains in Popular Tradition. Illustrated. 4to, decorated cloth, gilt top, uncut.

That man's a most eyregious sort
And wears long hair that folks may know it
'Tis true his verses do not show it
But what of that? He must be poet,
Dost his hair twelve inches long?
Why 'tis proof positive of long
Dont he feed Regulus on clover?
Say, dont he turn his dickey over?

MASON AND SLIDELL: A YANKEE IDYLL.

To the Editors of the ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

JANUARY, 6th JAN., 1862.

GENTLEMEN.—I was highly gratified by the insertion of a portion of my letter in the last number of your valuable and entertaining Miscellany, though in a type which rendered its substance inaccessible even to the beautiful new spectacles presented to me by a Committee of the Parish on New-Year's Day. I trust that I was able to bear your very considerable abridgment of my incitations with a spirit becoming a Christian. My third grand-daughter, Rebekah, aged fourteen years, and whom I have trained to read slowly and with proper emphasis, (a practice too much neglected in our modern systems of education,) read aloud to me the excellent essay upon "Old Age," the authour of which I cannot help suspecting to be a young man who has never yet known what it was to have snow (suntibus morosis) upon his own roof. Dissice frigus, large super, foco ligna responsum, is a rule for the young, whose wood-pile is yet abundant for such cheerful lenitives. A good life behind him is the best thing to keep an old man's shoulders from shivering at every breath of sorrow or ill-fortune. But methinks it were easier for an old man to feel the disadvantages of youth than the advantages of age. Of these latter I reckon one of the chiefest to be this: that we attach a less inordinate value to our own productions, and, distrusting daily more and more our own wisdom, (with the conceit whereof at twenty we wrap ourselves away from knowledge as with a garment,) do reconcile ourselves with the wisdom of God. I could wish, indeed, that room might have been made for the residus of the anecdote relating to Deacon Tinkham, which would not only have gratified a natural curiosity on the part of the publick, (as I have reason to know from several letters of inquiry already received,) but would also, as I think, have largely increased the circulation of your Magazine in this town. Nihil humani alienum, there is a curiosity about the affairs of our neighbours which is not only pardonable, but even commendable. But I shall abide a more fitting season.

As touching the following literary effort of Esquire Biglow, much might be profitably said on the topick of Idyllic and Pastoral Poetry, and concerning the proper distinctions to be made between them, from Theocritus, the inventer of the former, to Collins, the latest authour I know of who has emulated the classics in the latter style. But in the time of a civil war worthy a Milton to defend and a Lucan to sing, it may be reasonably doubted whether the publick, never too studious of serious instruction, might not consider other objects more deserving of present attention. Concerning the title of "Hull," which Mr. Biglow has adopted at my suggestion, it may not be improper to animadver, that the name properly signifies a poem somewhat rustic in phrase, (for, though the learned are not agreed as to the particular dialect employed by Theocritus, they are univerisamius both as to its rusticity and its capacity of rising now and then to the level of more elevated sentiments and expressions,) while it is also descriptive of real scenery and manners. Yet it must be admitted that the production now in question (which here and there bears perhaps too plainly the marks of my correcting hand) does partake of the nature of a Pastoral, inasmuch as the interlocutors therin are purely imaginary beings, and the whole is little better than stavroῦ σκηδὲ λογία. The plot was, as I believe, suggested by the "Twa Briggs" of Robert Burns, a Scottish poet of the last century, as that found its prototype in the "Mutual Complaint of Plaintaines and Causey" by Ferguson, though the metre of this latter be different by a foot in each verse. I remanded my talented young parishioner and friend that Concord Bridge had long since yielded to the edacious tooth of Time. But he answered me to this effect; that there was no greater mistake of an authour than to suppose the reader had no fancy of his own; that, if once that faculty was to be called into activity, it were better to be in for the whole sheep than the shunuler; and that he knew Concord like a book, — an expression questionable in propriety, since there are few things with which he is not more familiar than with the printed page. In proof of what he affirmed, he showed me some verses which with others he had stricken out as too much delaying the action, but which I communicate in this place because they rightly define "punkin-seed," (which Mr. Bartlett would have a kind of perch, — a creature to which I have found a rod or pole not to be so easily equivalent in our inland waters as in the books of arithmetic,) and because it conveys an eulogium on the worthy son of an excellent father, with whose acquaintance (ehew, fugaces ewai!) I was formerly honoured.

"But nowadays the Bridge ain't wit they show,
So much as Ben' son, Hawthorne, an' Thoreau."

1091. MILTON (JOHN). Paradise Lost. A Poem Written in Ten Books. By John Milton. Small 4to, original calf, binding a little worn.

London, 1667

FIRST EDITION AND FIRST TITLE AND GENUINE THROUGHOUT, EXCEEDINGLY RARE IN THIS STATE. Apparently very few copies were sold of this first issue before the publisher re-issued the book with a new title-page, using for the most part the original sheets. Some imperfect copies of the first edition have been completed from these re-issues, but as a few of the sheets were reprinted from the standing types, on paper with a different water-mark, it is absolutely necessary for the careful collector to obtain a copy in its original condition, and which certainly has not been tampered with. This copy is one of the few in existence. On the title is faintly seen the contemporary autograph of the original owner "Phil Dutton," and another name.

1092. MILTON (JOHN). Paradise Lost. A Poem in Ten Books. The Author John Milton. Small 4to, dark green crushed levant morocco, broad gilt panels on the sides, gilt back, gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE.

1097. MILTON (JOHN). Poems. FIRST COMPLETE EDITION. 12mo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt on marbled edges, BY CHAMBOLLE-DURU.

London, 1673

1098. MILTON (JOHN). Mr. John Milton's Character of the Long Parliament and Assembly of Divines in 1641. Omitted in his other Works, and never before Printed. And very seasonable for these times. Small 4to, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt fillet lines and corner ornaments, gilt inside borders and gilt edges, BY THE CLUB BINDERY.

London : Printed for Henry Brome, 1681

1099. MILTON (JOHN). Arcopagitica : a speech of Mr. John Milton for the Liberty of Unlicens'd Printing. With a Preface by Another Hand. 8vo, old half calf.

London, 1738

Second Edition, edited by the poet Thomson who wrote the preface.

1100. MILTON (JOHN). The Works of John Milton, Historical, Political and Miscellaneous, now more correctly printed from the Originals than in any former edition and many Passages restored. To which is prefixed an account of his Life and Writings. (Edited by Thomas Hollis.) Engraved portraits by Ciprianie. 2 vols. 4to, original rus-sia gilt, bindings worn.

London, 1763

EDITOR'S OWN COPY, inscribed by him to Jonathan Mayhew,—“To Jonathan Mayhew D. D. of Boston in New-England, able active, faithful, Thomas Hollis, in sign of friendship. Pall Mall Oct. 10, 1764,” and with “Ut spargam T. H.” written by Hollis on the title. Exceedingly interesting as the gift of the famous benefactor of Harvard College to an even more famous New England Divine.

1101. MILTON (JOHN). L'Allagro et le Pensieroso de Milton. Traduits en vers François (by Ribouville). Small 4to, old French green morocco, with a wide border of leaf and floral gilt tooling, gilt edges, owner's name on title blotted out.

1141. MIRROUR FOR MAGISTRATES. A Mirrour for Magistrates being a true Chronicle Historie of the Untimely Falles of such unfortunate Princes of Men of Note, as have happened since the first entrance of Brute into this Island until this our latter Age. Newly enlarged with a last part called A Winter Nights Vision, being an Addition of such Tragedies especially Famous as are exempted in the former Historie, with a Poem annexed, called Englands Eliza. With separate titles to each part. Thick small 4to, old leather gilt, re-backed, preliminary page 553 torn away. London, 1610
Contains both the rare dedications: To the Earl of Nottingham in the Winter Nights Vision, and to Lady Clare in England's Eliza, the former being especially rare. The first complete edition of this famous Elizabethan volume of histories and legends containing for the first time the two above mentioned. The Shakespearian interest of the volume is well known, a detail being the similarity of title of the Winters Nights Vision with Shakespeare's Winter's Tale, which was first performed so far as is known a year later than this publication (1611) although founded on Greene's Romance of Pandosto.

To All whom these Presents may Concern.

HA D I. not been an Eye and Ear-Witnes of the late rash Measures in this Province; I could not have believ'd that an Infant Colony of England, as yet sucking her Breasts, could thus have flown in her Face; or that a Body of People so distinguisht by many Marks of Her Majestys Grace and Favour, could be so ungrateful, as to brand Her most just and gentle Reign with the odious Name of Tyranny: For if Supporting her Government in the Manner She has directed, be Slevery, (as the angry Faction have industriously proclaimed abroad, and taught the unthinking People to echo back) the giving such Directions or Instructions, must, by undeniable Consequence, be Tyranny.

The Apprehension of the Danger that attends these Measurers (for whatever my Concern may be in the Country, I have as great a one for it as any Man) has induced me to publish, in the cleareft Manner I am able, the State of the Case in Dispute, between the QUEEN (for so it is) and the late Assemblies here, in order to prevent, if possible, the Next from running upon the same Rocks, and, by that Means, the Effect of Her Majestys just Reuent for their undutiful Behaviour. And indeed there is nothing wanting but a true State of the Case, to shew the Unreasonableness and Danger of such an unnatural and impotent Struggle, the Necessity of Recanting and Remedyng what is past, and to open the Eyes and Understandings of the People blinded with false Colours, and bamboozled with Noise and Absurdities.

The CASE stands thus:

The Revenue being dropt in the Year 1709, Her Majesty has, by the Mouths of Her several Governors since that Time, earnestly recommended to the Assemblies here, the settling of a Revenue for the Support of her Government in this Province. The Lords Commissioners of Trade (a Body of Men consisting of all the Chief Ministers of State, with others set apart for the Care and Management of Her Majestys Plantations) have, in their several Letters to the present Governor, affirmed, The not Settling, or deferring to settle such a Revenue, to be Oblivion, Disrespect, and Want of Duty to Her Majesty.

The Assembly, or more properly a PARTY there, pretend, That they were ready and willing to support the Government, but the Governor had rejected their Bills for that Purpose.

In the First Place, it is obvious, That in the Course of Three Years that he has resided amongst us, and during the many (by him) uninterrupted Sessions of Assembly, there has not been one single Bill for that Purpose offered to him for his Assent. True it is, that several Money Bills have been sent up from the House of Representatives, to the Council, for their Coconcurrence, of which Number there was only One that mention'd the Support of Government; but all of them in such Terms, and clog'd with such Clauses, that the Council, without the highest breach of their Trust, their Oath, and their Allegiance, could not pass them.

1402. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). The Cenci. A Tragedy in Five Acts. Tall 8vo, brown morocco, wide gilt border, gilt top, uncut, BY THE CLUB BINDERY. Italy and London, 1819
FIRST EDITION. UNCUT. VERY FINE COPY, WITH LARGE MARGINS. Shelley printed only a very limited edition. This copy has the rare original blank leaf before title.
There is no printers name in the book, and Shelley told Peacock that he meant the Tragedy to be published with a frontispiece from Guido's portrait of Beatrice. The book was printed at Leghorn though not published in England until the spring of 1820, and then without the intended frontispiece. Shelley writes, "I cannot describe the trouble I had with the Italian printer." The list of "Errata" exists only in Shelley's autograph, but so far as known, has never been printed. The second edition, duly corrected, appeared in London, dated 1821, however, before Shelley's MS. errata turned up. It is therefore clear that the proper basis of the text is the first edition.
1403. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Prometheus Unbound. A Lyrical Drama in four Acts. With Other Poems. 8vo, brown morocco, wide ribbon border, gilt top, uncut, BY THE CLUB BINDERY. Lacks the first half-title. London, 1820
FIRST EDITION, very rare uncut. Bound uniform with above.
1404. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Queen Mab. FIRST PUBLISHED EDITION. 8vo, green crushed levant morocco, inside gilt borders, gilt top, BY THE CLUB BINDERY. London, 1821
The First Edition, privately printed by the poet himself, was withdrawn from circulation and is consequently rarely met with. This edition with Clark's imprint was the next in order of publication, and the first to be issued for public sale. Some copies contain the Dedication, which is not in this.
1405. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Posthumous Poems. (With a Preface by Mary W. Shelley.) FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original boards, entirely uncut. London: John and Leigh Hunt, 1824
1406. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Les Cenci. Drame de Shelley. Traduction de Tola Dorian. Avec Preface par Algernon Charles Swinburne. Small 8vo, half blue morocco gilt, gilt top, the original wrappers bound in, BY TOUT. Paris, 1883
1407. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Shelley's Philosophy of Love. By Arthur Dillon. Tall 8vo, polished calf gilt, BY TOUT. London, 1888
One of three copies printed on vellum for private circulation only.
1408. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Shelley's Centenary. By William Watson. Portrait of Watson. Tall 8vo, half blue crushed levant morocco, BY THE CLUB BINDERY. London, 1892
Printed on vellum, and for private distribution, in 25 copies only, and probably not more than three on vellum.

Sixth Session, Friday Evening, April 30th

1409. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Letters from Percy Bysshe Shelley to J. H. Leigh Hunt. Edited by Thomas J. Wise. 2 vols. 1894; Letters from Shelley to T. J. Hogg. With notes by W. M. Rossetti and H. Buxton Forman. Vol. I. London, 1897. Together, 3 vols. small 8vo, cloth, uncut. London, 1894-1897
Limited to 30 copies and printed for private distribution.
1410. SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE). Relics of Shelley. Edited by Richard Garnett. London, 1862; Shelley's Daemon of the World, the first part as published, the second part now first published from the Ms. London, 1876. Privately printed by H. Buxton Forman; Shelley's Prometheus Unbound considered as a Poem by W. M. Rossetti. Half morocco. London, 1887. 25 copies only printed privately; Epipsychedion, with a note by Swinburne. Shelley Society Publications. London, 1887. Limited issue. Reprints of Alastor, Victor and Cazire, etc. Together, 9 vols. 12mo and 8vo, cloth and vellum.
1411. SHERBORN (C. W.). A Collection of Engraved portraits and plates by C. W. Sherborn, as follows,—Portrait of Thomas Carlyle, 1849. Signed Proof; Portrait of Oliver Cromwell. Signed Proof on Japan paper (2 copies); William Wordsworth. Signed Proof on India paper; Banquet at Guildhall on Monday 9th November 1885. 1417. SHERIDAN (RICHARD BRINSLEY). The Critic, or a Tragedy Rehearsed. A Dramatick Piece in three Acts, etc. Engraved vignette of the Masques of Tragedy and Comedy on the title. FIRST EDITION (pp. 98). Tall 8vo, crimson straight-grain morocco gilt, gilt top, uncut, BY STIKEMAN. London: Printed for T. Becket, 1781
1418. SHERIDAN (RICHARD BRINSLEY). The Critic. FIRST EDITION (96 pages), and S. J. Neede's name as the engraver of the title, entirely uncut, 8vo peacock-blue crushed levant morocco, BY RIVIÈRE.
London, Printed for T. Becket, 1781
The second issue of the First Edition.
1419. SHERIDAN (RICHARD BRINSLEY). The School for Scandal. First Dublin Edition. 8vo, peacock blue crushed levant morocco, gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE. Dublin: Printed for J. Ewling [1781]
VERY RARE. The School for Scandal was first printed in Dublin, in three different editions, two being dated 1781, and one undated. Many collectors consider this the first.
1420. SHERIDAN (RICHARD BRINSLEY). The Duenna: A Comic Opera. In Three Acts. As Performed at the Theatre Royal Covent Garden: with Universal Applause. 8vo, peacock-blue crushed levant morocco, gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE.
London: Printed for T. N. Longman, 1794
"The Duenna" was printed first in Dublin in 1786. This is the first London edition.
1421. SHERIDAN (RICHARD BRINSLEY). Pizarro; A Tragedy, in Five Acts; As Performed at the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane: Taken from the German Drama of Kotzebue; and adapted to the English State. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, peacock-blue morocco, BY RIVIÈRE, gilt edges.
London: Printed for James Ridgway, 1799
With both the rare unpage preliminary leaves of "Advertisement" and "Dedication," and the Epilogue (unpaged) at the end, spoken by Mrs. Jordan.

Sixth Session, Friday Evening, April 30th

1422. SHERIDAN (RICHARD BRINSLEY). The Dramatic Works of Richard Brinsley Sheridan. With an Introduction by Richard Grant White. 3 vols., 8vo, crushed brown levant morocco, inside gilt borders, gilt tops, uncut, BY BRADSTREET. New York, 1883

Limited to 120 copies, this being No. 40, lettered for M. Le Baron Roger Portalis, original member of the Society.
"Perhaps the finest examples yet produced of colour prints . . . are to be found among the illustrated books published in Paris by the 'Societe des amis des livres.' These are printed from four metal plates, each specially engraved to carry a particular colour—dull red, green blue, pale yellow and a fully engraved key-print in neutral tint. The registering of these plates is marvellous, and the result appears like a most delicately engraved single plate inked in colour and made in one impression."—CYRIL DAVENPORT.

1469. STEVENSON (ROBERT LOUIS). An Inland Voyage. FIRST EDITION. Small 8vo, original blue pictorial cloth, top edges uncut, edges of binding rubbed. London, 1878
STEVENSON'S FIRST BOOK, WITH A LETTER RELATING TO IT, 2pp., 8vo, dated from Skerryvore, Bournemouth, writing cordially to J. Fitzgerald Molloy as a brother-author, and with reference to the "Inland Voyage,"—
*"There are, I think, some six Molloys in the field of letters . . . that which I remember with the greatest clearness is the 'Autumn Holiday'; and if that is yours I think I am already in your debt. For I remember clearly it was the success of the Autumn Holiday, and the pleasure I had in reading it which encouraged me to re-write and prepare for press the Journal of my Inland Voyage" . . . closing with a humorous reference to his being haunted by "a Mr. Stevenson the author in umbra nominis, for me, who comes and goes and sometimes passes for me."*
1470. STEVENSON (ROBERT LOUIS). Travels with a Donkey in the Cevennes. Frontispiece, woodcut, with portrait. FIRST EDITION. Small 8vo, original cloth, library copy, binding worn. London, 1879
A particularly difficult First Edition to obtain. Nearly all the known copies are more or less soiled. This shows marks of having been read, but is in much better condition than usually found.
1471. STEVENSON (ROBERT LOUIS). Deacon Brodie. or, The Double Life: A Melodrama founded on Facts. By Robert Louis Stevenson and W. E. Henley. Small 8vo, original grey wrappers. [Edinburgh] 1880

1530. [SWIFT (JONATHAN).] A Tale of a Tub. Written for the Universal Improvement of Mankind. To which is added an Account of a Battel between the Ancient and Modern Books in St. James's Library. (And) A Discourse concerning the Mechanical Operation of the Spirit. FIRST EDITION. Small 8vo, sprinkled calf, gilt, gilt edges. London: Printed for John Nutt, 1704
1531. [SWIFT (JONATHAN).] Miscellanies in Prose and Verse. 8vo, original calf. London, 1711
Published anonymously by Dean Swift, and containing twenty-five pieces several being their first publication in book form.
1532. [SWIFT (JONATHAN).] Travels into Several Remote Nations of the World. By Lemuel Gulliver. Portrait and 4 maps. 2 vols. 8vo, old calf, gilt. London, 1726
FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION.
1533. [SWIFT (JONATHAN).] Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. By Lemuel Gulliver. Portrait and 4 maps. 2 vols. 8vo, polished calf, gilt, gilt edges, BY LARKINS. London, 1726
FIRST EDITION. There were several issues of the First Edition all with the same date, but varying in several details. This copy has "The Publisher to the Reader" ending on p. viii; the setting-up of the title a little smaller than some of the other issues; and a few other differences. On the title of each volume is written the contemporary autograph of the original owner and the date "Decem. ye 20th. 1726."
1534. [SWIFT (JONATHAN).] Travels into Several Remote Nations of the World. By Lemuel Gulliver. Portrait, etc. 2 vols, 8vo, original calf, bindings worn. London, 1726
One of the issues of the FIRST EDITION, subsequent to the First Issue but before the edition printed "Second."

Seventh Session, Saturday Afternoon, May 1st

1535. [SWIFT (JONATHAN).] Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. By Lemuel Gulliver. To which are prefixed several copies of Verses explanatory and commendatory. Portrait, etc. 2 vols. 8vo, old calf, rebacked and gilt. London, 1727
Second Edition.
1536. SWIFT (JONATHAN). The Life and Genuine Character of Doctor Swift. Written by Himself. Folio, half calf. London: J. Roberts, 1733
FIRST EDITION, but a surreptitious issue, probably from a manuscript copy. Swift did not issue his own edition until 1739.
1537. SWIFT (JONATHAN). The Works of Jonathan Swift, Dean of St. Patrick's, Dublin, containing additional Letters, Tracts and Poems not hitherto published. Notes and Life by Sir Walter Scott. Portraits. 19 vols., tall 8vo, cloth, uncut. Boston, 1883
The Riverside Edition limited to 750 copies. A reprint of the second and best edition.
1538. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). The Queen Mother. Rosamond. Two Plays. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original blue cloth, with paper label, uncut, label slightly rubbed. London: Pickering, 1860
FINE COPY OF THIS EXCESSIVELY RARE EARLIEST ISSUE, with the leaf of errata, both half-titles and the misprint on the label. Almost unknown in this early state, and uncut.
1539. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). The Queen Mother. Rosamond. Two Plays. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, cloth, uncut. London: Pickering, 1860
PRESENTATION COPY from the Publisher to the Editor of Bentley's Magazine. The same issue as preceding, but lacking the leaf of errata, and the half-title to both plays repaired and misplaced in the sheets. It has the error on the label, but part of the label is defaced.
1540. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). The Queen Mother. Rosamond. Two Plays. The Second issue being the sheets of the first issue with a new title and Moxon's imprint, without either half-title to the Plays or the leaf of errata. 12mo, green cloth, uncut. London: Moxon, 1860
1541. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Dead Love. 8vo, brown crushed levant morocco, inside dentelle borders, gilt top, the original brick-red covers retained, BY RIVIÈRE. London, 1864
Very early work of Swinburne and excessively rare with the wrappers. Laid in is the woodcut by Lawless, illustrating its appearance in Once a Week, in October, 1862. Wise thought so highly of this woodcut that he used it as a frontispiece to his Bibliography of Swinburne.

Therein lie neither stones nor sticks,
Neither red nor white bricks,
But for cables fine or six
There is never goodly harborage
And cables laid in rows.
^{yes} ^{the} ^{you} round about my roof,
(If ye like ye shall come proofs)
Here is good space for horse shoope,
Stain drokling porches.
In the fair green meather's heat,
And for the smell of leaves sweet,
It is so sweet, well yewed,
Clean to waxen amorous.
This I say now by my case
That speld forth of that royal place,
There never in no great space
None over sweet, both body & face
Under the fresh boughs.
In a water that was there
She washeth her goodly body bare
And dried it with her own hair:
Both her arms else haires fair,
Both bosom & breast,
Both shoulders else high,
The heireesse upon his wife;
Ever she sighed with little sighs,
And ever she gane sad shoulches
Yea, sed wot I can well see yet
Both her breast, else sides all watry
And her ^{long} great hair with long tail,
Spread sideways like a dracong's net,
Therewere a hand shirring to fayre
The hollow where her neck was set,
Calleth great white blanches.

ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE
Original Manuscript of "Queen Bersabe"
Reduced facsimile
[No. 1547]

Seventh Session, Saturday Afternoon, May 1st

1542. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). The Children of the Chapel. A Tale (By Miss Gordon.) 12mo, cloth, worn. London, 1864
The author was a cousin of Swinburne, and Swinburne wrote the poems which she incorporated in this tale. Very rare early Swinburne item.
1543. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Atlanta in Calydon. A Tragedy. FIRST QUARTO EDITION. Small 4to, original cream-colored buckram boards, gilt, in a pattern designed by Rossetti, a little worn. London: Moxon, 1865
THE GENUINE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the name of Barrett as printer on reverse of the title.
1544. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Chastelard; a Tragedy. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, heliotrope crushed levant morocco, with pointille and floral tooling, gilt top, uncut. London, 1865
Ford Madox Brown's copy with his autograph (fading) on the flyleaf.
1545. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Cleopatra. Square 12mo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt edges, the original brick-red thin cloth covers retained, BY THE CLUB BINDERY. London, John Camden Hotten, 1866
FIRST EDITION. VERY RARE. Not included by Swinburne in any of his Collected poems. Wise mentions two wrappers both of paper, but omits to mention the cloth wrapper in which some copies were issued.
1546. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Laus Veneris. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, brown crushed levant morocco, BY RIVIÈRE, the original wrappers bound in. London, Moxon, 1866
SWINBURNE'S OWN COPY, AUTOGRAPHED ON THE HALF-TITLE, and later in the possession of Thomas J. Wise, who reproduced this volume in his Swinburne Bibliography, stating that very few copies were printed. "Moxon was terribly nervous in those days," and these were distributed among friends.
1547. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Manuscript of the Masque of Queen Bersabe. The original manuscript of one of the principal poems of "Poems and Ballads," entitled "The Masque of Queen Bersabe," written by Swinburne on 13 quarto and folio sheets of paper, many of the pages being covered on both sides, the manuscript showing many evidences of the way in which Swinburne re-wrote lines and verses until he arrived at the one which suited him. Accompanied by part of the printed poem extracted from the American edition of the "Laus Veneris." In half morocco folder. (1866)

The manuscript is complete, containing the first draft of the entire poem. A very fine example. Swinburne has full play for his genius in the description each Queen or Beautiful Woman gives of herself as she appears before King David. And as Sappho, Cleopatra, Semiramis, Thomiris, Herodias, Messalina and Queen Bersabe appear, the imagination is stirred by the beauty and melody of the poem.

1563. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Le Tombeau de Théophile Gautier.
Portrait of Gautier. FIRST EDITION. 4to, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt top, uncut, BY THE CLUB BINDERY, the original wrappers retained. Paris, 1873

One of the few copies issued containing the etched portrait of Gautier.

1564. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Auguste Vacquerie. Par Swinburne. Tall 8vo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt top, the original brick-red covers bound in, BY THE CLUB BINDERY.

Paris, 1875

Wise comments on the rarity of this First Edition of Swinburne.

1565. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). The Devil's Due. A Letter to the Editor of the 'Examiner.' By Thomas Maitland. (Swinburne).
12mo, eleven pp. bound in crushed brown levant morocco, inside ribbon border, gilt top, BY RIVIÈRE.

N.p., 1875 for private circulation

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Wise states no copy is known. Written by Swinburne for the 'Examiner' in reply to Buchanan's attack, then not yet re-issued with the author's name, as "The Fleshly School of Poetry."
T. J. Wise in his bibliography stated no copy of this separate issue was known, but adds in a postscript that he has just heard of a copy, that it was probably issued in a very small number of copies and is of the utmost rarity.

1566. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Note of an English Republican on the Museovite Crusade. FIRST EDITION. Tall 8vo, crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt edges, the original blue wrappers bound in BY THE CLUB BINDERY. London, 1876

1567. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). Ode à la Statue de Victor Hugo.
Traduction de Tola Dorian. 4to, original wrappers. 1882

Only 200 copies were printed, and the only form in which the "Ode" appears separately.

1568. SWINBURNE (ALGERNON CHARLES). A Century of Roundels. Square
8vo, cloth, title badly opened. London, 1883

A Swinburne manuscript inserted. A torn half-sheet of blue paper covered with lines of verse on both sides, corrected and scored out time after time, but finally leaving intact the following lines,—

*"I saw fallen as they fled
Clothed with laughter, crowned with tears
Veiled and naked, pale and red
Twenty shadows which were years
Some in face like flowers that come
Ere the Summer catch the Spring
Some with sweet blind eyes, and some
With sweet lips that"*

No more interesting example could be had showing Swinburne's method of trying many lines until the right one was secured.

1591. SYLVESTER (JOSHUA). Lachrimae Lachrimarvm. or the Distillation of Teares Shede For the vntymely Death of The incomparable Prince Panaretvs. Small 4to, half green straight-grain morocco, cut close by binder. London: Humphrey Lownes, 1612

FIRST EDITION. VERY RARE. The title page and the verso of each leaf printed in black reserve with the Arms of the Prince, the last leaf having instead the Three Feathers. The text is within mourning borders showing skeletons or in shrouds.

One of the very rare elegiac poems on the death of Henry, Prince of Wales. As well as being a very rare book, it is a curiosity of printing, the greater part of it being engraved on wood, the center of the recto of each alternate page alone being in type.

1592. SYLVESTER (JOSHUA). The Parliament if Vertues Royal: (Summoned in France but assembled in England) for Nomination, Creation and Confirmation of the most Excellent Prince Panaretvs, etc. 2 vols. bound in one, with separate titles throughout, but the second part having separate pagination for the various poems, with the very rare unpaginated "Honor's Farewelle" at the end. Thick 12mo, green morocco, gilt, BY PRATT, small monogram stamp on title, and the title having inner margin restored.

London, 1614, 1615 and n.d.

The Hoe copy of 1620 was believed to be the first collected edition, but this precedes it by several years. VERY RARE.

1593. SYMMONS (EDWARD). A Vindication of King Charles: or a Loyal Subject's Duty. Manifested in Vindicating his Soveraigne from those Aspersions cast upon him by certaine Persons in a scandalous Libel entituled The Kings Cabinet Opened, etc. By Edw. Symmons, a Minister, not of the late confused New, but of the Ancient, Orderly, and True Church of England. Engraved portrait of the King. Small 4to, old sheep, binding worn.

[London] Printed in the Yeere, 1648

1594. SYMONDS (JOHN ADDINGTON). The Escorial. A Prize Poem recited in the Theatre, Oxford, June 20, 1860. Small 8vo, wrappers.

Oxford, 1860

FIRST EDITION. A very fine fresh copy of this rare pamphlet.

1648. TENNYSON (CHARLES). Sonnets and Fugitive Pieces. FIRST EDITION. Thin 12mo, light brown crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt tops, uncut. Cambridge, 1830
The author with Alfred Tennyson of the "Poems by Two Brothers." Very rare in fine condition.

1649. TEWRDANNCKH. Die geuerlicheiten und einsteils der geschichtten des loblichen streyt-paren und hochberumbten helds und Ritters herr Tewrdannckhs. 118 magnificent wood-engravings drawn by Hans Schauflein, of Tournaments Knights in adventures in landscapes and other incidents of chivalry. Folio, old green morocco, gilt and blind tooled, slight spots in few pages, a few pages have scroll shaved at top. Nuremberg: Schonsperger, 1517

The most magnificent illustrated book produced by the great wood-engravers, artists and printers of the Cinque-Cento, and now becoming very rare. Famous not only for its illustrations, but for the remarkable printing in imitation of a floridly written manuscript. Under the form of relating the romantic adventures of the knight Tewrdannckh (meant for the Emperor Maximilian), it gives the laws and rules of chivalry as decided by the Courts of Honor. The romance was composed by Melchoir Pfintzing and printed, it is believed, at the expense of Emperor Maximilian. At the end are the eight leaves of the key to the characters, and register.

THE FIRST EDITION, with the blank leaf, sig. p5. This blank leaf is the original with water-mark of the arms of Nuremberg. Size of leaf, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 9 2/8 inches.

1650. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). Vanity Fair. FIRST EDITION. In the original parts (20 in 19), enclosed in morocco solander case. London, 1847-1848

Vanity Fair, in the original parts, in perfect condition is almost an unobtainable rarity. Most of the known copies are defective, more or less and this likewise has been made up, with some errors. Many of the advertisements are lacking, Parts 1, 10, 14, 18 and 19 have had the wrong back covers supplied; part 4 has a late issue of the front cover without the number or date and blank inside; part 9 is wrong both front and back; part 18 and the last part are without the date.

1651. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). The History of Pendennis. FIRST EDITION. Complete in the original parts (24 in 23). Enclosed in two morocco solander cases. London, 1848-1850

Very difficult to obtain complete in the original parts. This copy has the wrong back supplied to No. 20, and lacks the advertisements to that number and to one or two others.

1652. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). The English Humourists of the Eighteenth Century. A Series of Lectures. FIRST EDITION. Small 8vo, original cloth, uncut, a little shabby. London, 1853

1653. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). The Newcomes. Illustrated by Richard Doyle. FIRST EDITION. In the original (24 in 23) parts, 8vo, wrappers, uncut. In 2 morocco solander cases. London, 1853-1854

Lacking the advertisements in Parts I-IV, and a few leaves of the advertisements elsewhere. It is very difficult to find any two books of Thackeray which were issued in parts agreeing in the advertisements or in the placing of them, and variations will be found in the advertisements in this copy. It is in fair condition and not a "made up" copy.

1654. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). The Virginians. FIRST EDITION. In the original (24) parts. Enclosed in two morocco solander cases. London, 1857-1859

Two leaves of advertisements at the end of part 23 have been torn out, but a very good copy, and genuine throughout.

1655. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). The Victoria Regia, a volume of original contributions in Poetry and Prose, edited by Adelaide A. Proctor. Tall 8vo, original cloth, gilt, binding faded. London, 1861

Contains the first appearance of Thackeray's "A Leaf out of a Sketch Book," Lowell's "The Fatal Curiosity," and Tennyson's "The Sailor Boy."

1656. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). Reading a Poem. By Michael Angelo Titmarsh. Privately reprinted for a Member of the Grolier Club. 12mo, wrappers, uncut. New York, 1897

No. 1 of 100 copies privately printed by Mr. E. G. Kennedy and inscribed by him to Mr. Holden.

1664. TORREY (JESSE). A Portraiture of Domestic Slavery, in the United States, with reflections on the Practicability of restoring the Moral Rights of the Slave, without impairing the Legal Privileges of the Possessor... including Memoirs of Facts on the Interior Traffic in Slaves and on Kidnapping. Engravings by Alexander Lawson. 8vo, boards, old leather back, uncut.

Philadelphia, by the Author, 1817

1665. [TOTTILL (RICHARD).] A very proper treatise, wherein is briefly set forth the Arte of Limming, which teacheth the order in drawing & tracing of Letters, vinets, Flowers, Arms and Imagery, & the maner how to make sundry sises or grounde to lay silver or golde uppon. and how silver or golde shall be layed or limned uppon the sise & the waye to temper golde & silver and other mettales and divers kindes of colours to write or to limme withall uppon velym, parchment or paper....never put in printe before this time. Small 4to, old blue straight-grain morocco, gilt, gilt edges.

Imprinted at London in Flete Strete by Richard Tottill, 1573

The first English treatise on drawing and painting and of the mixing and preparation of colors. Possibly written by the printer who was an ingenious man, patenting improvements in printing and other schemes. Very scarce.

1666. TROLLOPE (MRS.). Domestic Manners of the Americans. Original lithographs. 2 vols. small 8vo, half brown morocco, gilt, gilt tops.

London, 1832

FIRST EDITION AND A VERY FINE COPY of the book that since its issue has been and continues to be more widely read and enjoyed than any similar work.

1667. TRUMBULL (BENJAMIN). A Complete History of Connecticut, Civil and Ecclesiastical, from the Emigrations of its First Planters in 1630 to 1713. Vol. 1 (all published). Folding map and 3 portraits engraved by A. Doolittle. Thick 8vo, old leather. FINE COPY, interi-orly; binding broken.

Hartford, 1797

1668. TRUMBULL (HENRY). History of the Discovery of America, of the Landing of our Forefathers at Plymouth, and of their most remarkable engagements with the Indians in New-England, 1620-1669. To which is annexed the Defeat of Generals Braddock, Harmer & St. Clair by the Indians at the Westward, &c. By the Rev. James Steward. Folding engraved frontispiece. 8vo, original boards, entirely uncut, binding cracked.

Brooklyn, L. I. "Printed by Grant & Wells for J. W. Carew"
(1810)

Another edition was issued about the same time in Norwich, Conn. with a slight change in the title, and probably preceded this edition by a short time. This Brooklyn edition may have been printed for disposal by chap-men or some bookseller with a fictitious imprint. If not the first, this is certainly the second edition. It later went to many editions.

Seventh Session, Saturday Afternoon, May 1st

1669. TRUMBULL (HENRY). History of the Discovery of America, of the Landing of our Forefathers at Plymouth, and of their most remarkable engagements with the Indians in New-England, 1620-1679. To which is annexed every important engagement with the Savages at the Westward to the Present Day, including the Defeat of the Generals Braddock, Harmer and St. Clair, the Creek & Seminole War &c. Folding frontispiece by A. Bowen and woodcut both of which have crude early coloring. 8vo, old sheep, name on title, binding worn. Boston, 1819
1670. TRUMBULL (JOHN). M'Fingal: a Modern Epic Poem: Embellished with nine Copper Plates designed and engraved by E. Tisdale, including portrait of Trumbull. New York, printed by John Buel. 1795; Poetical Works of John Trumbull, containing M'Fingal... and Poems written before and during the Revolutionary War. Portrait and engravings. 2 vols. in 1. Hartford, 1820. 2 vols. 8vo, half morocco and calf.
The Collected Poems bound in panelled calf, gilt and blind tooled, by William Seymour of Albany, with his ticket. Tickets of American binders of the period are very scarce. This is a very pretty engraved design within a wreath.
1671. TUDOR LIBRARY. Giovanni Pico della Mirandola: his Life by his nephew Giovanni Francesco Pico; also three of his Letters... his twelve points of a Perfect Lover, etc. Translated by Sir Thomas More. Introduction and Notes by J. M. Rigg. Royal Imperial 8vo, boards, uncut. London, 1890

1778. WITHER (GEORGE). Wither's Motto. Nee habeo, Nec Careo, Nec Curo. Engraved title by R. E. with "Explanation of the Embleme" (cut down and mounted.) Bound with,—An Answer to Wither's Motto. Without a Frontispiece. Wherein, Nee Habeo, Nec Careo, Nec Curo, are neither approved nor confuted: but modestly controled, or qualified. Oxford, 1625. 12mo, calf, gilt, BY TOUT, last leaf of "Motto" having piece inserted in margin; preliminary leaf of "Explanations" cut down and mounted, some letters of same missing. London, Printed for John Marriott, 1621
1779. WITHER (GEORGE). Britain's Remembrancer containing a Narration of the Plague lately past; a Declaration of the Mischiefs Present; and a Prediction of Judgments to come (if Repentance prevent not.) Engraved frontispiece in the lower part of which is a bird's-eye view of England and Scotland. 12mo, calf. London, 1628
FIRST EDITION, with the rare preliminary leaf: "The Meaning of the Title Page" and the amusing paragraph relating to "the faults escaped in printing." These faults are explained by the conclusion of the "A Premonition," where Wither states that a license for him to print it being refused, he had to print every sheet of it with his own hands. He made a good job of it nevertheless, and most readers will do as Wither asks "wink at these faults."

Seventh Session, Saturday Afternoon, May 1st

London, 1798-1800

FIRST EDITION OF EACH VOLUME. Laid in is a very fine Wordsworth Letter relating to the collected edition of his Poems:

"Several of my Friends being desirous of having all my Sonnets under their eyc at once, I have yielded to their request and am about to print them in one volume. It will contribute to making this a correct book, if you will permit me as heretofore, for which I shall be greatly obliged, to let the sheets pass through your hands."

In addition to this, the 1798 volume is from the library of Mary Hutchinson (whom Wordsworth married later) and has her name on the title.

1784. WORDSWORTH (WILLIAM). Poems. FIRST EDITION. 2 vols. original boards, uncut, re-backed.

London, 1807

VERY RARE ENTIRELY UNCUT. Some of Wordsworth's most beautiful poems were published in these volumes including the "Ode" later called "Intimations of Immortality."
